

FOHRID, as a dynamic organization, aims to materialize democratic process and culture through protection, promotion and respect of human rights, combating impunity, promoting accountability and rule of law and strengthening democracy by planning and implementing advocacy, research, networking, mobilizing the non-state actors, collaboration and capacity building activities according to its faith, commitment and vision.