

1. To take initiative to end impunity for promotion of accountability and strengthening rule of law.
2. Protection, promotion and respect of human rights according to the Universal Declaration of Human Rights-1948 and other relevant international instruments,
3. Strengthening democratic process and culture through promoting intra/interparty institutional democracy and institutional capacity building at all levels,
4. To initiate campaign for ratification and implementation of Rome Statute 1998 of ICC at the domestic level.
5. To initiate campaign for immediate signature and ratification of other UN Conventions and Optional Protocols by Nepal.
6. To take initiative for poverty alleviation through conducting constructive activities for community development by identifying, managing and mobilizing natural resources.
7. To establish culture of peace through conflict resolution and promoting reconciliation for sustaining peace initiative.
8. To build public advocacy for establishment of Transitional Justice mechanisms and enable victims to claim and express their rights and access to justice.
9. To enhance and mobilize non-state actors through institutional infrastructure and capacity building of FOHRID and its networks.